

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP OF SEND

A course for colleagues with responsibility for SEND in their setting

[Click here
for dates](#)

Led by David Bartram OBE

Learn Sheffield Improvement Partner

This course will provide delegates with practical ideas and strategies to strengthen the quality of SEND leadership in their setting. This will include developing a strategic SEND action plan and training to support accurate self-evaluation.

Sheffield Cost: £300 (or 0.5 subscription days)

Please note- to attend this course, you need to be available for all sessions

SESSION 1- HALF DAY
SESSION 2- FULL DAY

ALL SESSIONS WILL TAKE PLACE AT LEARN SHEFFIELD

ALBION HOUSE
SAVILE STREET
S4 7UD

To book a place or register an interest for a later cohort,
please contact
bookings@learnsheffield.co.uk

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP OF SEND

Session 1- Half Day

- Exploring the principles of leading an effective SEND strategy in school
- Introduction to David Pendleton's Primary Colours model and Steve Radcliffe's Future-Engage-Deliver
- Training in effective SEND self-evaluation

Colleagues then complete a SEND self-evaluation with their leadership teams on-site

Session 2- Full Day

- Sharing emerging themes, current challenges and opportunities
- Prioritising next steps
- Principles and practice of strategic action planning
- Colleagues complete the first stages of their strategic plan

Please note- to attend this course, you need to be available for all sessions

To book a place or register an interest for a later cohort, please contact bookings@learnsheffield.co.uk

